Building an Inclusive and Equitable Culture Around a Socially and Emotionally Supportive Community

Presented by

Dr. Hector Montenegro

This keynote presentation will address the integration of SEL into leadership development and relationship skills in the context of equity, cultural relevancy and culturally responsive teaching. The presentation will include an overview of SEL leadership skills, assessing the success and challenges of the position and identify effective SEL leadership strategies from the perspective of school board members, superintendents, central office staff and school administrators.

Dr. Hector Montenegro, President/CEO of Montenegro Consulting Group(MCG), LLC, is a Senior District Advisor for the Collaborative for Academic, Social and Emotional Learning(CASEL) and works with districts on systemic implementation of SEL leadership development for administrators and instructional coaching. Dr. Montenegro has been a math teacher, principal, Chief of Staff, Deputy Superintendent and Superintendent. He is an internationally recognized speaker and presenter in the US and abroad in over 23 countries. He has been invited through the US State Department in cooperation with Ministries of Education as a special educational advisor to Chile, Peru and Saudi Arabia and received numerous prestigious awards.
